Lease was signed for 1 year , suddenly - someone from QLD moved in as a share couple and police have attended the property twice , and finally property was damaged by the couple , which was my room door rather than the door of the bathroom.

I called 000- no one arrived at the incident.

I was locked in the house for 1 week until the lock to be fixed . and then i was asked move out of the property.

During moving - people in property arranged to get my packed items stolen while i was moving, therefore 1 box was stolen during moving to the National storage.

Arrived at the storage , kept my boxes in the storage .

Took another office on rent , which was $200 , and suddenly , they asked myself to leave both unit 225 and OFF5

Easter payments were delayed and not released before easter but it was advised that it will be released before easter.

At Southern Cross station people started repeating same homeless . homeless . homeless and I was saying no
